Dear Joshua,

Apart from a considerable gain in weight, which I am finding difficult to handle, I have greatly enjoyed my visit with you and Esther. Thank you again for your hospitality. I have just spent two weeks at the seaside and am spending a few days in Pavia to check what progress has been made with the computer. I had to give up the programme of the trip South because two of the children are ill with, I hope, minor ailments.

This is just a short note. Enclosed is copy of some material sent to Gene.

Yours ever,

(Luca)
